Work Experience

Prior to joining Thalhimer in 2013, Myrna Johnson was a legal assistant in the immigration area for McCandlish Kaine and Holton PC, a practice formerly run by Senator Tim Kaine when he was still practicing law. After her three years with this law firm, Myrna transitioned to Wagner & Associates where she served as a Property Manager overseeing four commercial properties and six residential homes. In this role Myrna's duties included account receivable management, budgeting, property inspections, vendor relationship management, and maintaining communications with property owners. She served in this role for 10 years until joining the Thalhimer family.

Myrna's duties as the Residential Property Coordinator includes support for our Thalhimer Realty Partners Group, Director of Residential Property Services, Director of Operations and Portfolio Managers. She also handles auditing reports of security deposits, renewals, service work orders, delinquencies and prepaids, SODA's, holding fees and collection processing.
